Pastor's Message

Zephaniah, in the first reading, calls the "moral minority" of the Jews of his time blessed because they seek justice, humility, truth and righteousness, thus making a declaration of dependence on God. In the second reading, Paul advises his Corinthian Christians to use their gifts and Heaven-sent blessings for the good of the community because God has chosen to give them life in Jesus, by whom He justified, sanctified and redeemed them. In the Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples in the paradoxical blessedness of poverty, hunger, sorrow and persecution. In poverty, we recognize God's reign; in hunger, His providence; in sorrow, true happiness; and in persecution, true joy. In other words, the blessed in Jesus' list are poor in spirit, compassionate, meek, merciful, clean of heart and peacemakers and those who are willing even to be insulted and persecuted for their lived faith in Him. Each of the inspired authors of today's readings, Zephaniah, Paul and Matthew, "makes a motion," that each of us should consider making a Declaration of Dependence on God and then work with His grace to lead holier and happier lives. -- Fr. John

2017 Annual Bishop's Appeal

As the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux celebrates this year with a theme of Hope, the main theme of the 2017 Annual Bishop's Appeal is Partners in Hope. We are one diocese. To be successful in anything that we do, we must be partners. When you make a gift to the Annual Bishop's Appeal, your entire gift will stay in the diocese with the benefits of your gift affecting the lives of many. Every household in our diocese will receive a mailing concerning the Appeal and how the funds will be used to support Priests' Retirement, Ministries for Youth, Adults, and Families, and sharing with parishes that surpass their goal. Please take a few moments to review the materials to learn more about what the Appeal does for you and others in the diocese and to consider making a financial contribution.

If you would like more information about the 2017 Appeal, please contact the diocesan Office of Stewardship and Development at 850-3155 or visit www.htdiocese.org.

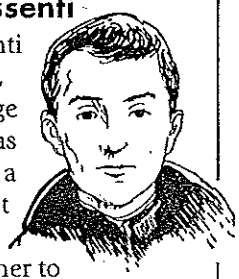
One Minute Meditations

St. Gabriel Possenti



Francesco Possenti was born in Assisi, Italy, into a large family. He was often sick as a child. He lost two sisters and his mother to illness by the time he was four. At 18, he joined the Passionists and was named Gabriel of Our Lady of Sorrows. He inspired others by his prayer and faithfulness in the little things. He suffered from tuberculosis shortly after entering, which he endured patiently and cheerfully until his death.

Serve without complaint

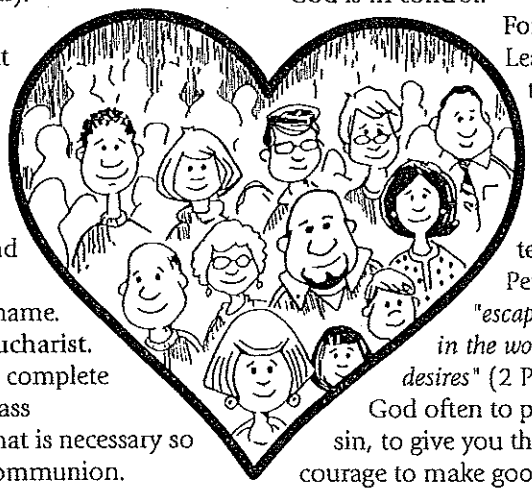
Every job has aspects about it that are tedious, messy, and unrewarding, yet they are necessary. However, they can be opportunities to grow in virtue: humility, patience, self-discipline, etc. When you dread doing your work, smile and say a prayer, "and your Father, who sees in secret, will repay you" (Matthew 6:4).

"The works of God are all of them good; in its own time every need is supplied" (Sirach 39:16).

Love and live your faith

Faith in God is not a passive virtue resting in the background of our lives. Belief and love for God compels us to an active life of serving, sharing, and living our faith daily.

Embrace excellence. All that we do becomes a prayer when we give our employers, communities, neighborhoods and families our best abilities in God's name.



Celebrate the Eucharist. No Catholic life is complete without weekly Mass attendance. Do what is necessary so you can receive Communion.

Become family. Register in your parish and look for ways to get involved in a parish ministry, such as lecturing, ushering, singing, or becoming a Eucharistic minister.

Be joyful. Scripture comforts us with the assurance that God will not rest until we find our way home to him. Reject Earthly worry and live with joy. God is in control.

Forgive often. Learn to practice this critical skill – and to ask for it when needed.

Flee temptation. St. Peter tells us to "escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires" (2 Peter 1:4). Ask God often to protect you from sin, to give you the wisdom and courage to make good choices.

Listen to God. Be sensitive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit. God will reveal when you've messed up, and rejoice with you when you get it right.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics venerate relics?

The saints were ordinary people, like us, but they had an extraordinary love for God. Relics—their remains and personal possessions —represent those who are in glory with God. Just as we treasure things that once belonged to someone we loved or admired—a piece of clothing or jewelry, for example—we treasure the relics of saints. Although relics themselves have no special properties, venerating them reminds us of the virtuous examples of the saints.

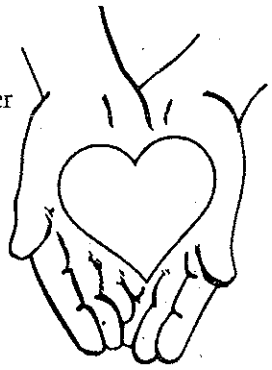
Know him, love him, and serve him to be happy forever

The Baltimore Catechism taught us that God made us to "know him, to love him, and to serve him in this world, and to be happy with him forever in the next." In truth, God loves us and wants us to love him back.



Knowing him. Each of us was created with a place in our hearts just for God. Until we discover it, we may try to fill it with earthly things but nothing else fits. Remove the clutter, turn to God and the reward is peace.

Loving him. Jesus asked us to love God with all our hearts because surrendering to God is the best way to experience his infinite love. Show your love by praying daily, seeking Communion with him often, and thanking him for his goodness.

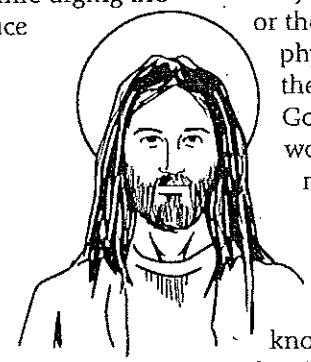
Serving him. When we make sure others have enough to eat, warm clothes to wear, and a place to stay, Jesus takes it personally. It's what he asked us to do.

The reward for doing all this is eternal happiness.

from Scripture

Matthew 6:24-34, Our choice.

In Jesus' day, scribes and Pharisees often lived comfortably while urging the people to heights of sacrifice and penance they didn't observe themselves. The message was right but the messengers were flawed. Instead, Jesus took on our humanity and spoke with authority. He experienced hunger and thirst, and didn't always have a place to sleep. So when he counseled his listeners to trust God with all their needs, he knew what he was asking.



Jesus said don't worry. By that he meant don't be anxious and concerned beyond our immediate needs.

Stability in this world for the rich or the poor comes not from physical provisions but from the inner peace that only God can provide. By worrying about our physical needs, we draw attention away from attaining the inner stability so necessary for peace.

From experience, Jesus knows we have a choice. We can live in the world or we can live in God's Kingdom, but we cannot do both. Jesus wants us to invest in our future with him. God will take care of the rest.

Feasts & Celebrations

Feb. 2 – St. Paul Miki and Companions (1596). St. Paul Miki, a Jesuit missionary in Japan, was arrested along with 25 other Catholics during religious persecution and forced to walk more than 300 miles to Nagasaki where they were crucified. It is said they preached the whole journey and ran to their crosses praising God.

Feb. 3 – St. Ansgar (865). Ansgar was born in Picardy, France. He was sent to the nearby Benedictine monastery after the death of his mother. After taking vows, he traveled to Denmark and Sweden to preach the Gospel. In 831, he was appointed papal legate to the northern lands by Pope Gregory IV. He was known for his holiness and ascetic lifestyle.

Feb. 5 – St. Agatha (c.251). At an early age, Agatha dedicated herself to God and promised to preserve her chastity. She kept this vow, even under torture. To strengthen her, God sent a vision of St. Peter who healed her. She is the patroness of nurses and miners.

Q & A

Does being a "good Catholic" mean following all the rules exactly?

The ancient Jews had a lot of rules. Jewish Law dictated what you could eat, how to stay ritually clean, and how to spend Saturdays. Yet, when asked what the most important commandment was, Jesus' answer brought his listeners back to the basics: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind...you shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22:37).

Jesus didn't give rules so much as he laid down principles. At the Last Supper, Jesus gave his disciples a New Commandment: "Love one another as I love you" (John 15:12). This New Commandment gives us the whole Law in its simplest form: Catholicism, at its heart, is about love—Christ-like love for God and others. Being a good Catholic isn't about following all the rules perfectly for perfection's sake, but about falling in love with God. Once that happens, following the Commandments and the Beatitudes takes care of itself. They cease to be rules and become a lifestyle.

The Pope's Prayer Intention for February
Universal: Comfort for the Afflicted.

That all those who are afflicted, especially the poor, refugees, and marginalized, may find welcome and comfort in our communities.

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Holy Savior,
The semi-annual stewardship report is presented to keep you informed of the Parish financial status. Information in the report includes revenues and expenses from July 1, 2016 to December 31, 2016. Additional information regarding the donations and expenses for the air conditioning and heating will be included in the next six month report. If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to discuss them with me. Again, I thank you for continued support.

May God bless you,
Father John
